September 15

Late afternoon departures from either Coldwater or Celina, St. Marys and Wapak to go to the hotel in the Cincinnati area for overnight stay prior to early morning flight to Quebec

September 16

4:30 am - Check in for flight to Toronto and then on to Quebec. Group will have to go through customs in Toronto
1:20 pm Arrive in Quebec. Bus will pick up passengers at the airport and take them to the cruise terminal,
2:00 pm Check in for cruise on Royal Caribbean's Adventures of the Seas. It offers some unique amenities like such as putt putt golf, ice-skating rink and rock-climbing wall -- not to mention a bustling Royal Promenade, a boulevard of retail stores, bars and cafes. Rest of the day is free to check out the ship or do a little exploring in Quebec.

September 17 - Port of Call: Quebec City, Quebec, Canada - Departs at 5:00 PM

Walk within the fortification of Quebec. Declared a historical monument, this commanding wall forms an impressive 3 mile defensive belt around the old city. Discover the French heritage and culture featured within its walls, with art galleries and alley, restaurants and cobblestone alleyways. It is an ideal place to 'step back in time' and take a leisurely stroll. Shore excursions go to the beautiful granite Basilica of Ste. Anne-de-Beaupré before visiting the breathtaking Montmorency Falls, where the river cascades over a 272-foot cliff before emptying into the Saint Lawrence. Travel along the scenic old Beaupré Coast and through the picturesque villages of French Canada. Experience the charm of the old quarter of Quebec City.

September 18 - Cruising

Whether you seek adventure or tranquility, our ships have it all. Try rock climbing, ice skating and mini golf on green that overlooks a sea of blue. Melt away land-based stress with a spa massage, build a scrapbook of memories or simply relax poolside.

September 19 - Port of Call: Charlottetown, Prince Edward Island, Canada - ARRIVES 8:00 AM DEPARTS 6:00 PM

Prince Edward Island is a delight of rolling green hills, pasture, and farms, ringed by sandy beaches, red cliffs, cozy coves and bays. Charlottetown charms with small-town ambience, maritime heritage and Victorian style. Shore excursions options include visiting sites related to the famous author L.M. Montgomery and her much-loved novel, Anne of Green Gables. Let the pages spring to life as you explore the Green Gables house, Haunted Wood and Balsam Hollow that set the stage for this world-renowned classic tale. Beaches abound on this tiny atoll. As a matter-of-fact, they say that no matter where you are on the island you're never more than 15 minutes away. Some are hopping. Some are virtually deserted. Some are warm enough to swim in. And one even has "singing sands."

September 20 - Port of Call: Sydney, Nova Scotia ARRIVES 7:00 AM DEPARTS 3:30 PM

Sydney is the gateway to Cape Breton Island and its highlands, forests, coastal trails and the large inland sea at its center. Shore excursion options include the Cabot Trail, a scenic roadway that takes you around the greater part of Nova Scotia's Cape Breton Island, one of the most famous drives in Canada. Visit the Bell Museum in the village of Baddeck, where Alexander Graham Bell, who invented the telephone at age 29, also made important contributions to medicine, engineering, agriculture, aeronautics, marine science, genetics, and teaching the deaf. Take a tour deep underground at the Underground Cape Breton Miners Museum. Listen to the stories of miners and their loved ones who risked their lives to work below the surface.

September 21 - Port of Call: Halifax, Nova Scotia - ARRIVES 7:00 AM DEPARTS 4:00 PM

Halifax was long defined by naval operations. The 18th-century Citadel still stands but today overlooks a thriving city whose restored waterfront features historic architecture, shops, museums, bars, restaurants and more. Excursion options include a drive through the beautiful Nova Scotian countryside to Peggy's Cove. Walk along the rocks to view the craggy coastline with its bold glacier-formed outcroppings of granite and its impressive lighthouse. Then drive through the softer South Shore area back to Halifax, and enjoy another view of the city. Take a historical and anecdote-filled tour and see the graves of the Titanic victims. Explore the hilltop fortress and the Citadel, and stroll through the beautiful Victorian-style public gardens.

September 22 - Port of Call: Saint John, New Brunswick (Bay of Fundy) - ARRIVES 8:30 AM DEPARTS 7:30 PM

Experience the amazing Reversing Falls Rapids, Saint John's best-known attraction. Twice daily the powerful tides of the Bay of Fundy rise faster than the river can empty. When this happens, the tide attempts to push the river back upstream, then the tide ebbs and the river appears to reverse itself and flow over the rocks, creating the appearance of reversing rapids. Visit the historic Trinity Anglican Church, which dates from 1877. Shop at your leisure in the antique and specialty shops located along Prince William Street. Visit St. Martin's Sea Caves and Beach, where you'll see caves carved out by the pounding tides, as well as the rock-covered beach. St. Martin's bridges, harbor area and lighthouse are favorites with photographers and painters

September 23 - Port of Call: Bar Harbor, Maine - ARRIVES 7:00 AM DEPARTS 7:00 PM

A wealthy summer playground during the Gilded Age, Mount Desert Island welcomes visitors to its rugged beauty and serene parkland. Nestled on the east side of Mt. Desert Island and surrounded by Acadia National Park, Bar Harbor features some of the most spectacular scenery on the Eastern Seaboard. The rock-bound coast, soaring granite cliffs, majestic mountains and blue waters have attracted the Rockefellers, Astors, and Vanderbilts for over 200 years, and continue to enchant visitors today. Explore beautiful Acadia National Park. See Cadillac Mountain and the natural rock formations of Thunder Hole. Journey over hand-cut stone bridges to arrive at Jordan Pond House, where you can take in the beautiful scenery of Penobscot Mountain and Bubbles Hill while enjoying popovers and tea.

September 24 - Port of Call: Boston, Massachusetts - ARRIVES 8:00 AM DEPARTS 7:00 PM

In the United States' oldest city, colonial heritage is the backdrop for an inviting mix of culture and lively street life. See where Revolutionary history took place on a walking or trolley tour along Boston's Freedom Trail and you'll see many monuments to Boston's rich history. Beginning at Boston Common, you'll pass the site of the Boston Massacre and go on to Faneuil Hall, Paul Revere's House and Charlestown, among many other places central to American history. Trade in your cruise ship for a unique and exciting DUCK - a WWII water-landing vehicle. Tour the best of Boston and soak up a view of the skyline while your "ConDUCKtor" enlightens you with fun facts and insights. Tour Lexington and Concord, the grounds that launched the Revolutionary War. Walk the streets of Paul Revere to see the Concord Museum, Minuteman Statue homes of Ralph Waldo Emerson, Nathaniel Hawthorne and Louisa May Alcott

September 25 - Port of Call: Portland, Maine - ARRIVES 7:00 AM DEPARTS 7:00 PM

The Old Port Exchange is really the heart of downtown Portland. It's a collection of 19th-century brick buildings originally constructed to support the vast export and fishing industries. Today, this quaint, restored area houses specialty shops, restaurants and pubs. Discover Kennebunkport, a truly classic Maine village. See Victorian-style mansions built by sea captains and 19th-century merchants. Stroll the same quaint streets as famous resident, former President George Bush. Visit the center of town, Dock Square, and immerse yourself in the fashionable shops, galleries and small restaurants. Come see the Portland Head Light lighthouse illuminate over 200 years of history. George Washington ordered its construction in 1787. Today it is the most photographed lighthouse in North America. Visit the Victoria Mansion, one of America's most significant Victorian homes, dating back to 1858. The interior is all original, with antique furniture, carpets, ceramics and wall decorations. 19th-century poet Henry Wadsworth Longfellow was raised in the Wadsworth-Longfellow House in downtown Portland. Tour his home, and see an interesting collection of Maine's historical artifacts. Shop 'til you drop in Freeport, home of the world-famous L.L. Bean® and over 100 other stores, from designer boutiques to unique Maine artisan shops.

September 26 - Cruising

After stopping at all the ports, today is a day to just relax and enjoy all the activities and amenities onboard the ship
