The singer, songwriter, comedian, guitar virtuoso, and consummate entertainer is bringing everything back to the stage that made us vote him the best entertainer, best personality, and best comedy show. With some of his original band members joining him back on stage, this is a celebration you do not want to miss! "I've got new vocals, new stories and new instrumentals I'm working on," he said. "There is one new instrumental piece I've been working on for the past 16 months, and the reason why is because it's hard." In addition to the new material, Stafford said folks could expect to see some bits from the past they haven't seen in many years.
