

FIRST TIME IN THE USA!

WORLD CHOIR GAMES

THE OLYMPICS OF SINGING COMPETITION

Wed.-Thurs., July 11-12

Held every two years in cities around the globe, the World Choir Games honor the history and international flavor of choirs with peaceful celebration and friendly competition. It's the largest and most significant international arts event in Cincinnati's history.

90 Countries participating — 400 Choirs — 28 Competition venues — 30 Categories of music

Wed., July 11

7:30-8:45 AM

Departures from Lima, Celina, St. Marys & Wapak

11:00 AM

Arrive into the Cincinnati area

TIMING FOR THE DAY CANNOT BE GIVEN AT THIS TIME SINCE THE CONCERTS ARE NOT SET.

There are two International Villages in and near downtown Cincinnati. We will head to one of them. Lunch is on your own.

3:00 PM

Approximate time to check into Springhill Inn & Suites. Amenities at this all-suite hotel include microwave & refrigerator in each room; outdoor pool.

5:00 PM

Tribute to Peace at the World Peace Bell

The Bell is significant for this event since it was brought to its resting place to promote World Peace and since there are so many countries participating in the Choir Games, how appropriate it is for the bell to swing and ring in World Peace.

5:30 PM

Cross the street to The Syndicate for a deluxe dinner buffet and music of the Big Band Era. This show and dance orchestra features an exciting and entertaining "Las Vegas" style show. The group performs a wide variety of music ranging from the original "Big Band" arrangements of the Swing Era, to the "Rock and Roll" of the 1950s to the contemporary music of today.
